Donald W. Fether Alleged To Have Possessed Liquor Illegally.

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE ENQUIRER.

Ithaca, N. Y., August 22.—Donald W. Fether, the Cornell sophomore who was released from detention on a writ of habeas corpus on the charge of having caused the death of Hazel Crance, was arraigned to-day on the charge of having possessed liquor illegally. The hearing continued only five minutes and adjournment was taken until Tuesday.

A fund of $1,000 is being raised by popular subscriptions to obtain divers to continue the search for the body of Miss Crance. The original fund of $500 to pay for grapplers has been exhausted.

Fether's mother, who arrived from Los Angeles, Cal., maintains that her son is innocent and says that developments will clear him.
